

Letter to America – Know the difference between state and country

In school we are taught to embrace and accept our political leaders, our political system and the way our society is run by these people – in order that that we do not discover reality: that politicians are agents of organized crime in service to their political parties' owners, who are also the owners of states – which are privately owned businesses called CORPORATIONS. Their owners are the triad of European royalty, the Vatican and the Rothschilds with other bankster gangsters

We are forced to pay for the upkeep of royalty, churches, politicians and governments through taxes, when the real task of royalty, religions, politicians and governments is to enslave us through belief systems, taxation and steal our countries' natural resources. We are not taught at school though, NEITHER are we told that WE are our COUNTRY, or taught the difference state and country. A state is an occupant at war with a country's population – this is done in a stealth manner so you don't realize it.

Do you know the difference between state and country? If you don't, don't feel bad because this information is deliberate withheld from our education systems, because if we all knew what is revealed in this article nobody would ever vote again, and we would have united and got rid of politicians, governments and freemasonry long ago and brought in self-governing direct democracy giving ourselves real freedom, peace and prosperity.

States are occupants of countries

States are stealth occupations that control mankind through an elaborate control system called Justinian Deception. Justinian Deception is a matrix of control put in place by those running the world behind the scenes: European royalty headed by Queen Elizabeth II, the Vatican and the Rothschilds with other bankster gangsters.

Justinian Deception entails the law system (illegal laws and jurisdictions invented to steal from us our ownership to our country, our rights, including our right to life and ownership of property); religions (to create divide and conquer, submittance and mind control), politics and parliamentarism (to create illusion of choice when all parties are controlled by the same families in each generation behind the scenes) and the monetary system (fake and fraudulent) with money created, or more precisely DEBT created out of thin air put in our names, with "money" based on non-existing values.

Unfortunately our education systems are all controlled at high levels, so we never get to know these real facts and continue from generation to generation to accept the conditioning and brainwashing we receive at school to embrace the tradition of voting, to believe in political parties, believe in government and state, and look up to and almost worship

(warship) kings and queens, presidents and prime ministers, in the belief that these serve us, when they DON'T.

A state is a hidden occupant belonging to the aforementioned triad of European royalty, the Vatican and the Rothschilds and other bankster gangsters executed by non-elected politicians cooperating worldwide within the Bilderberg group at the populations of the world's expense.

States are privately owned CORPORATIONS that pretend to serve us by providing superficial services that look great on the surface, but never deliver the goods. They are professional liars and serve their owners and their own pockets at our expense. They hide themselves behind countless veils of international organizations and conglomerates such as United Nations, the EU, NATO, WHO, Red Cross, World Bank, IMF (International Monetary Fund) etc. Their footsoldiers are worldwide freemasonry who do their dirty donkey work on the ground.

All states are illegal occupations of countries. If you live in a state within a country, for example in Canada, Australia or America, or in any other country occupied by a state, you know you are occupied. Nobody on Earth should live in a state – literally – in both the word's meanings!

All existence of state is criminal, and originate from the Vatican state, which represents something much more sinister than what most of us know or will believe. Here is a short summary:

GOD is a manmade construct invented by the Emperor Justinian about 2,400 years ago as part of an all-encompassing stealth system that the Roman Emperors built up over several centuries allowing themselves and their successors, today's European royalty, vatican and bankster gangsters control over the world. The Roman Emperors inherited these ideas from the ancient Sumerians, Kabbalists and Babylonians, today's zionists. They are all the same whether popes, royalty or bankster gangsters. Behind the scenes all these have never left the Old Testament. They are Baal and Lucifer whoreshipping child molesters, perverts, warmongers and murderers.

As mentioned, Justinian deception is their combined control grid using a false legal system, false monetary system, politics and politicians recruited within freemasonry, and made up religion for us to worship to keep us in bondage to them, in their favor. This system is aided by worldwide freemasonry that puts its men and women in all the right strategic places in every country's government to entrap and control humanity.

The trump card of Justinian Deception was their invention of GOD = a manmade fabricated lie, where the self-created and self-appointed Vatican abracadabra appointed itself as "God"'s representative on Earth.

GOD stands for Grantor of Dominion, and has nothing to do with the Creator. The Grantor of Dominion is the Vatican's self-appointed and created real role, passing themselves off as realtor (real estate agent) of the whole world, parcelling out estates to secondary self-appointed leaders (who acquired their "authority" through force of sword over centuries), like Kings and Queens and today's bankster gangsters who are granted their "states" on a kind of long-term lease, called State, or when with King or Queen, called Sovereign State. That's why they call themselves "Head of State". These states are set up as privately owned businesses, called corporations.

Emperors had already started working on setting up this control system about 200 years before Jesus' life, and exploited Jesus's life and popularity to the full – by having him crucified – to increase their own power – setting up Christianity as the newest belief system on Earth to control people, and then posing themselves as "God"'s representative on our planet.

Those who have read their scriptures will remember that Jesus threw the moneylenders out of the temple in rage – just like those who today criticize the fake monetary system, point out political crime, speak out about the New World Order's injustices and technological genocide.

Jesus was a dissident, Yellow Vest bearer, who spoke out against the injustices of Rome (the New World Order) of HIS time – whose descendants are the leading families of today's illuminati - who place their descendents in strategic positions worldwide to enslave and destroy us. Their top members are insane and psychopathic, believing they are worth more than the rest of the world's population, in addition to being pedophiles and murderers.

Jesus became a threat because he managed to gather huge crowds speaking against the Roman occupants of his homeland. His "yellow vest" movement drew huge crowds making him a real threat to the Roman devils, so they had him crucified.

Having crucified Jesus, the Roman Emperor with collaborators got together to fabricate a big lie of a control mechanism – the Bible – using Jesus's popularity to further STRENGTHEN the already strong Roman power base, now making themselves the representative of "GOD" on Earth. Sound familiar? Heard about false flags? 9/11? The war against drugs? The war against terrorism?

This was how the Roman Emperors rigged themselves up as "God"'s representative on Earth = the Vatican.

The Rothschilds jumped onto this bandwagon many centuries later when they became the Vatican's bankers, turned the power structure in THEIR favor with their fake monetary system.

Parliamentarism and politics are the so-called acceptable fronts of their states (= occupants of our countries), providing us a fake illusion of choice, when, as mentioned above, it's the same families controlling everything behind the scenes.

Today the Rothschilds are so well intermarried into European aristocracy and royalty that they are becoming one and the same thing. European royalty is of German Ashkenazi Jewish descent, not Christians, though pretending to be so on the surface.

Beneath the Vatican the world's leaders sacrifice babies and small children in their performance of satanic rituals. They are pedophiles and murderers. Amongst them are top leaders of all world religions who are initiated into the truth, the cult of Baal or Lucifer. They have never left the dark realms of the Old Testament or Babylon. The same goes for your country's freemasons and their other avatars like Rotary etc.

The Romans developed the monetary system replacing direct bartering with Roman coins which suddenly gave a non-existing value a "real" value despite the fact that you can't eat gold, heat your home with it or live in it. It's only of value in the mind – just like today's total worthless abracadabra money.

Having appointed themselves as our bosses, having set up religions for different areas of the world, they then set about to make us fear them by threatening us into obedience with armies, just like NATO and Red Cross etc does today. They then set up their fake laws giving them the right to decide to take over and rob our land and resources. Sound familiar?

All existence of today's law is a crime because all people on Earth are equal. No-one is better or worse than any other one or have the right to decide over any other one than oneself except when committing a real crime, not fabricated garbage.

Today we have a myriad of false law systems called jurisdictions. These are run by robber states who systematically plunder the countries with one hand and suppress and enslave the population with the other. All states are owned as business entities called CORPORATIONS, so when you cross a border out of your country you leave your corporation and fake jurisdiction and enter another corporation with ITS illegal laws.

Anyone from Europe or America, or perhaps Australia too, are taught at school the "Greatness of Rome" and is brainwashed to admire that time as a golden age which is a gigantic false flag, as this was the start of bigtime slavery of mankind. The Roman Empire represented the end of mankind's freedom, with today's states representing as their successors.

There are many layers of fake jurisdiction today, from the jurisdiction of your employer, your city, your state and so on. They are all false and should not be on Earth as there is only one law that applies, and that is the Law of One Creator.

The Law of One says that each and every human and animal life on Earth has the right to live a good life in its own right, that each and every animal and human life should be treated as equals and met with respect, and that no life on Earth is more worth more than another. This law is called the Law of One, which the "Holy" Vatican should be the first to honor and respect, HAD THEY BEEN SPIRITUAL instead of pedophile plunderers and killers. What if Holy = Whole lie? Do you begin to see the deception? Follow the phonetics.

Politics was set up to control populations on the one hand, and pose as controlled opposition to provide the illusion of choice which is non-existent to this day. Why else do you think there is both a Congress and a Senate?

In England you have the House of Parliament and the House of Lords. It's all controlled opposition, just like all debates on television. Politicians say "bla, bla, bla" but how often do they actually say something that brings something you need into real life? And when they do, who ends up paying for it??? Yes, it's you. And you are already paying them for nothing. They don't serve you - they steal from you under the guise of serving you.

All forms of state, government, politics, law, banking and religion are elements of the control grid that keep us in bondage and slavery. These bonds need to be broken. The first key is knowledge of the above.

Americans, you need to stop cultivating and idolizing your politicians and Presidents like Emperors and heroes. These are all puppets for their controllers behind the scenes, the bankster gangsters, Rome and royalty, also known as the illuminati. Generation after generation, it's the same game, just a new name - creating a new party every now and then, or a new political revolutionary movement which THEY fund and control, like all wars. All the established fake media are their propaganda voices, lying through the teeth, recommending deadly vaccines with a smile on your TV.

They keep these illusions going using the same recipe as freemasonry. On the lower levels the freemasonry do their "decent" deeds for your local town or community, and indeed, many of them are doing good things at the low entry level. The freemasonry is dependent upon that front, just to keep face and hide what unspeakable acts they are involved in at the higher levels, child sacrifice, orgies, murder, narcotics import and so on.

It's the same recipe with the lower end of politics. Naive well-meaning people enter into politics believing they can create positive change or do something good for their local community, and sometimes do. And again, like the freemasons, using the same recipe of a positive front, while concocting crimes against humanity in the cellars of their lodges, with no windows or bars over the windows so that noone can peep in and see how they treat little children in sex rituals.

Keeping the lower level of freemasonry and politics clean keeps the vast majority of people believing in them, and like blind sheep keep voting for their oppressors, private-owned political parties, thus ensuring they stay in power to continue their tyranny with your blessing.

Americans, you need to know there is NO difference whatsoever between left or right, or between any other party – they all represent the aforementioned. Americans should know. You have one bird, an eagle, with two wings, with two different colors, red and blue. The only difference is that one causes itself democrats and the other republicans. But the owners and controllers behind the scenes are the same. Stop being fooled. You would be much better off without the parties. There are many honest politicians that would serve you better as cooperating groups than representing private interests, for their interests instead of your's as your dual party do today.

You need to know the difference between your national flag and your flag with its golden fringes and eagles in all sorts of varieties.

The eagle is ROME. Have you not seen the images of the nazis walking with their flags, topped with eagles? What topped the standards of Roman centurions entering into battle? Always a eagle present topping the banner held by the first man into battle, on behalf of these leeches.

Prime Ministers and Presidents and the like all swear allegiances not to their country and their citizens, but to the banks or sovereigns. They don't swear an oath to us, but to a flag that appear to look like your national flag, but have golden fringes, which is not your national flag, but belongs with royalty.

They swear deceptive oaths live on television that for most of us sound real and genuine, but play them back and listen careful several times, they make their oaths to SERVE CORPORATIONS or SOVEREIGNS or HEADS OF STATES. They say "I promise to serve the people" rather than the COUNTRY's citizens. The word people refers to plebians which is the term the Vatican use when referring to slaves.

To understand this in more detail you need to know a lot about Maritime Law, also called Admiralty law/Talmudic Law (Noahide New World Order Law) or Law of the Sea, and to be observant to the hidden meanings of language in phonetics and in the written wording. In short: The Sea = the Vatican Sea = See. Do you see?

As long as Presidents and Prime Ministers make sly hidden oaths to the bankster-gangsters and Vatican and royalty rather than the inhabitants of their countries, they are NOT serving us. So why have them? Why are we still voting for those that hold us in bondage?

Do you know what the voting ballot's real function is? Every time you vote you give the party you give your vote to carte blanche to do exact what the party want to do against you and your country with your permission. This is why you should never vote. Do you really want that?

Why are you still blindly believing in your Presidents, thinking somehow that the next one will be better than the last when all evidence shows that they ALL sooner or later let you down? Have you heard of cognitive dissonance?

Americans, you need to know that your country is just a puppet sovereign state and a colony of British royalty. Your country had about 10 days of freedom in 1776 before it was hijacked back into British control by the American freemasonry that coordinated this with King George II.

A country is you and me. A country is national citizens, us. We, the free citizens of a country own our country with all its resources in joint ownership, with full rights.

A citizen of a state as no rights. Haven't you noticed all those gold-fringed flags behind the President's desk in the White House or in all your court rooms or your military? What do you think that means? That means ownership to the Queen of England, because she is the real law in every fringed flag country.

Every court room or building or room that bears the fringed flag shows that that country's Constitution has been discarded in favor of the Queen. The real rulers behind the scenes today are the Vatican, European royalty headed by Queen Elizabeth II and the bank family Rothschild with associates, who now are using maritime/Talmudic law wherever they roam (Rome).

Justice is just what the word's phonetics reveal: Just ice = no feeling or emotion or compassion for anyone – just love of money through power. Justice is not the same as lawful. Legalese = legal lies.

We need to replace these occupants and their systems with self-governing direct democracy which is the key to our freedom and a prosperous life for all on Earth. To get there we first have to see through all the illusions of deception described here, and understand the real meaning of the voting ballot. Politicians, state and government have created a system that stand BETWEEN them and us, slavery and poverty versus real freedom with prosperity.

The Law of One is the only law that applies not just to Earth, but all the rest of life in space in all known space. This is the law of Creator. The Law of One is simple as outlined above and will have the best protective elements that we are somewhat familiar with from the Magna Carta/Common Law, real human rights and the best of the American Amendments and Constitution.

We encourage all in America to support the worldwide Yellow Vest movement which is clearly the forerunner to establishing self-governing direct democracy in each and every country, forever ridding the world of the tyrannical grip that the Vatican, royalty and banksters have on us. Unite and bring back your country, ditch your states. Never again vote for continued tyranny.

For inspiration as to the benefits of self-governing direct democracy, read here.....
